Contract Data:

Clause 51.1: Modified as per Rules of Government of India

An interest-bearing mobilization advance may be paid to the contractor exclusively for the costs of mobilization at 10 % of the contract price on the provision by the contractor of an unconditional Bank Guarantee (BG). Such BG shall remain effective until the advance payment has been fully repaid, but the amount thereof shall be progressively reduced by the amount repaid by the contractor, as indicated in the interim payment certificates (IPCs). The advance will be paid in two installments, each of 5%. The first installment may be paid on commencement of the work against an unconditional BG in respect of the advance. The second installment may be paid on certification by the engineer of the contractor's having achieved a financial progress of 10% of the contract price, as also provision of a BG by the contractor for this part of the advance. Mobilization expenditure mentioned herein shall not include the margin money and bank commission, and so on, paid by the contractor for procurement of BGs against performance security and mobilization advance. A simple interest @ 10% will be charged on the mobilization advance."
